

October 6, 2011

On October 5, 2011, the New Jersey Police Training Commission suspended the Alternate Route Program for 2012. In addition, Somerset County was not allowed an exemption to the suspensions. We thank you for your efforts in this current process and recommend that you watch our website next August/September for more information.